

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

By-laws

I

NAME

The name of this association is "THE UNIVERSITY CLUB OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA."

II

OBJECT

Its object shall be to promote social intercourse and mutual improvement among its members, and provide them with the conveniences of a Club House containing a library, a reading-room, and other means of promoting science, literature and art.

III

ORGANIZATION

The Central Committee representing the Alumni Association in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, organizing this Club, shall, after adopting these by-laws, proceed immediately to elect from the members accepted by said committee a Council and a Committee on Admissions of twelve members each, which Council shall proceed at once to elect officers in the manner as hereinafter provided, and the officers so elected shall immediately enter upon the performance of their duties as prescribed in these by-laws, and shall hold office until the annual meeting in 1905 or until their successors are elected and qualified. Thereafter all elections shall be held in the manner and at the times as directed by these by-laws.

IV

COUNCIL

The Council shall consist of twelve members, four of whom shall be elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Club, to replace the outgoing class and to assume office at the expiration of the term of such outgoing class. They shall hold office for three years, or until the third annual meeting after their election. The Council elected at the annual meeting for the year 1905 shall divide themselves by lot into three classes of four each, the first to serve one year, the second two years and the third three years, and thereafter at each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve three years to take the place of the retiring members. Not more than one member who has graduated from the same college or university shall be a member of the Council unless he also shall have received a degree from some other recognized college or university. The Council shall have general charge of the affairs, funds, and property of the Club; they shall have full power, and it shall be their duty, to carry out the purposes of the Club according to its charter and by-laws.

OFFICERS

The officers of the Club shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, and a Librarian.

VI

COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS

There shall be a Committee on Admissions, to consist of twelve members, four of whom shall be elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Club, to replace the outgoing class and to take office at the expiration of the term of such outgoing class. Not more than one member from the same college or university shall be eligible to serve on this committee at one and the same time. The twelve members elected in 1905 shall be divided by lot into three classes of four each, the first to serve one year, the second two years, and third three years, and thereafter at each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve three years to take the place of the retiring members.

VII

MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS

1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club on the second Saturday of February in each year. At the annual meeting to be held on the second Saturday of February, 1905, twelve members shall be elected by ballot, who shall constitute the Council, and twelve other members who shall constitute the Committee on Admissions and who shall hold office as provided in Articles IV and VI respectively of these by-laws, and thereafter at each annual meeting four members shall be elected by ballot as members of the Council (to replace the outgoing class), whose term of office shall be three years.

2. (a) The Council and the Committee on Admissions shall be chosen by ballot at an election to be held on the second Saturday in February in each year in the Club House, for which the polls shall be open from twelve (12) o'clock at noon until two (2) o'clock in the afternoon, and again from five (5) o'clock until seven (7) o'clock of the same day, and those receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

(b) At the regular meeting of the Council in December of each year there shall be appointed by said Council a Nominating Committee of five (5) resident club members, not members of the Council or Committee on Admissions, whose names shall be posted by January 10, and whose duty it shall be to nominate a ticket to be voted for at the following annual election. The ticket so nominated and signed Nominating Committee shall be posted three (3) weeks previous to the annual meeting of the Club.

(c) Any number of the resident members not less than ten (10), and not members of the Nominating Committee, may nominate candidates for said Council and the Committee on Admissions; such nominations shall be in writing, with the signatures of the persons nominating, and shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Club, so that they may be posted at least ten (10) days before the day of the next annual election, and ten (10) days before the next annual election the Secretary shall make and post on the bulletin board of the Club House a certificate showing the fact of all such nominations as shall have been delivered to him in accordance herewith.

(d) After the nomination paper has been delivered to the Secretary, no one who shall have signed the same shall be permitted to withdraw his name therefrom.

(e) When the time has expired within which nominations can be made the Council shall cause the names of all legally nominated candidates to be printed on one ticket, and the ticket so made shall be mailed to each resident member on the Saturday preceding the Saturday on which the annual election is held. No other form of ticket than the one hereinbefore provided for shall be used on the day of the election.

(f) Each member voting shall place a mark on the ballot opposite the names of such of the candidates of his choice as he desires to vote for, not exceeding twelve in number for each of said Council and Committee on Admissions, or four members each after 1905, and shall personally deliver such ballot to the Judges of Election, while the polls are open.

(g) If, in the counting of the ballot, it shall appear that any member has voted for more than the required number as stated above, the Judges of Election shall count the vote for those candidates whose names appear first on the ballot, until the number required for both Council and Committee on Admissions shall be obtained, and the surplus names marked on the ballot shall not be counted.

(h) Four days prior to each annual election, the President shall appoint three members of the Club to be designated as Judges of Election to receive and canvass the votes, and report in writing the result to the Club.

(i) In case of a tie between two or more candidates for the above-named bodies, it shall be determined by lot, at the annual meeting, which of them shall be declared elected.

(j) Notice of the annual election, together with a copy of the by-laws relating thereto, shall be posted on the bulletin board at least two weeks previous to the second Saturday in February.

3. The order of business at the annual meeting of the Club shall be as follows:

Reading of minutes of the last annual meeting and of special meeting held subsequent thereto.

Reports of officers.

Reports of committees.

Unfinished business.

New business.

Elections.

Adjournment.

4. Upon the written request of fifteen members, the Council shall call a special meeting of the Club. This request, and the notice of any special meeting, shall state the object for which the meeting is called, and at such special meeting no subject not so stated shall be considered. Notice of any meeting, whether annual or special, shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Club for one week. Twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club; strangers not to be present.

5. All meetings of the Club and Council shall be governed by the parliamentary rules laid down in Roberts's Rules of Order.

VIII

DUTIES

1. The President, and in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, in the order of their election, shall preside at the meetings of the Club and the Council. In the event of their absence, the Club or the Council may elect its presiding officer. The President shall, with the Secretary, sign all written contracts and obligations of the Club, and shall perform such other duties as the Council or the Club may assign him.

2. The Treasurer, or in case of his absence or inability to act the Assistant Treasurer, shall collect all entrance fees and dues, shall attend to all disbursements, and shall have charge of the funds of the Club, under the direction of the Council. He shall keep the accounts of the Club, and shall report, at any meeting of the Council to which he shall have been requested so to report, the balance of any moneys on hand and the outstanding obligations of the Club as far as practicable, and shall at the annual meeting report in full the receipts and disbursements of the previous year. He shall pay out of the Club funds only (1) for special expenses when expressly authorized by the Council; (2) upon house orders or bills when approved by the House Committee, or a majority thereof. His book of accounts shall at all times be open to the inspection of any member of the Council and of the Auditing and Finance Committee. His accounts shall be audited by the said Auditing Committee monthly, or oftener, if they so desire. He shall deposit the funds of the Club in the depository as shall be designated to him in writing by the Council. The funds of the Club shall not be loaned to any member. The fiscal year of the Club shall begin January 1. The Council may authorize him to employ such assistance as it shall think proper at the expense of the Club, in the keeping of his books and the preparing of his accounts and reports. He shall be exempt from the payment of the annual dues. Before entering upon his duties, the Treasurer shall give bond in such sum as may be required by the Council, with a good and sufficient surety company as surety, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, which bond shall be approved by the Council, and be deposited for safe keeping with the Secretary of the Council. The premium on said bond to be paid by the Club.

3. The Secretary, or in case of his absence or inability to act, the Assistant Secretary, shall give notice of all meetings of the Club and of the Council and shall keep a record of such meetings and of the proceedings of the Club and Council, and of all matters of which a record shall be deemed advisable by the Club or by said Council. He shall conduct the correspondence of the Club and have charge of all documents thereof. The records of the Secretary shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any member of the Club. He shall notify new members of their election and keep a roll of the members of the Club. He shall also be the keeper of the seal of the Club. The Council may authorize him to employ such assistance as it shall think proper, at the expense of the Club, in the keeping of his records and the preparing of his accounts and reports. He shall be exempt from the payment of the annual dues.

4. The Librarian shall have charge of all books, papers and periodicals of the Club, and shall, with the cooperation of the Literature, Art and Decorations Committee (of which committee he shall be a member), provide for their selection, purchase and final disposition. He shall be the custodian of the book plate of the Club, and shall report annually to the Council on the affairs of the Library.

5. The Council shall, as soon as may be, after each annual meeting, elect from its own body the following officers: President, two Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and Librarian, who shall hold office until the second Saturday of the succeeding February or until their successors are elected.

6. The Council shall submit at each annual meeting a general report of the affairs of the Club, with an estimate for the ensuing year, which shall be printed and distributed to members five days before the annual meeting, and shall report at other times if required.

7. The Council shall meet once a month, except during the months of July, August and September, and special meetings may be called by order of the President or by any three members of the Council. A majority of its members shall constitute a quorum of the Council.

8. The Council shall prescribe rules for the admission of strangers to the privileges of the Club.

9. The Council may fill any vacancy in its body by election of a member to hold office for the unexpired term in any class.

10. The Council shall have power to remit penalties for offences against the rules and for unintentional violations of the by-laws and to remit the dues of any member for such cause, and for such period as in their judgment may be advisable and proper.

11. The Committee on Admissions shall have the right to fill any vacancy in any class for the unexpired term of that class. Seven members shall constitute a quorum, and two negative votes shall be a rejection of a candidate. No member of the Council shall be a member of this committee. The names of the committee shall remain posted on the bulletin board of the Club. The name, residence, and college or place of instruction and degree of every person to be proposed for admission, with the names of the members proposing and seconding, shall be sent to the Committee on Admissions, and if this committee thinks proper, shall post his name on the bulletin board of the Club for at least one month, when the application may be acted upon by the Committee on Admissions, the proceedings of which committee shall be secret and confidential. It shall be the duty of the Committee, after careful consideration and examination, to vote upon each name separately and by ballot.

12. No member of this Committee shall propose any candidate for membership in the Club. On the election of each new member the Committee shall forthwith notify the Secretary of the Club.

13. The number of resident members of the Club shall not exceed seven hundred, except as temporarily increased by transfer from non-resident to resident members. The Council shall have power to increase the resident membership to one thousand, provided no increase at any one month shall exceed twenty-five.

14. If no vacancies exist in the membership of the Club the candidate elected shall have his name placed on the waiting list, and he shall be so notified by the Secretary of the Club.

IX

QUALIFICATIONS OF MEMBERS

1. Any person shall be eligible to membership in this Club who shall have received from a university or college a degree, to obtain which, in regular course, at least three years' residence and study are required, or who shall have received an honorary degree from such university or college, or who shall have graduated at the United States Military Academy or at the United States Naval Academy or at any similar institution ; provided that, in the case of the holder of an honorary degree, the candidate shall be distinguished in literature, art, science or the public service. Provided further that any person shall be eligible for membership who shall have received from a university or college a degree to obtain which in regular course a less residence or study were required, if the Council by two-thirds vote shall decide the university and college is eligible and the degree is eligible.

2. The Council and Committee on Admissions jointly shall determine what degrees and what universities and colleges shall qualify the holders for membership, and a list of such degrees and such universities and colleges, as from time to time are determined by the Council and Committee on Admissions, shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Club.

3. Any member whose name shall have been upon the roll of the Club for fifteen consecutive years shall be entitled to become a life member on the payment of one thousand dollars. The number of life members of the Club shall not exceed one hundred. Whenever a member becomes a life member a vacancy shall be created thereby in the resident membership, as the case may be. Life members shall have the rights and privileges, and be subject to all the penalties of the regular members, but shall forever be exempt from all annual dues.

X

RESIGNATIONS

Resignations of membership shall be made to the Secretary in writing.

Such resignation shall not be accepted until all indebtedness to the Club of the member resigning shall have been discharged.

XI

DUES

1. The entrance fee shall be ten (10) dollars for resident charter members and five (5) dollars for non-resident charter members; the entrance fee other than for charter members shall be twenty-five (25) dollars for resident members and twelve (12) dollars and a half for non-resident members; but every non-resident member who shall become a resident member shall pay to the Treasurer an amount equal to the difference between his original entrance fee and the entrance fee for a resident member at the time of his admission as a non-resident member; and a failure to pay said sum shall be considered a failure to pay dues, and shall subject the member in default to the penalties prescribed in Section 9 of this article.

2. The annual dues of resident members shall be twenty (20) dollars, and of non-resident members ten (10) dollars, except as provided in Section 8 of this Article, payable semiannually, in advance, on the first days of January and July of each year.

3. Persons not residing or having a place of business within twenty miles of the United States Capitol, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, may be elected as non-resident members.

4. Non-resident members shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Club or to hold office. They shall be accorded all privileges of the Club, but shall have no legal interest in the property thereof.

5. Any resident member who may remove his residence and place of business to a distance of at least twenty miles from the United States Capitol, in the city of Washington, shall, on written notice to the Secretary of such removal and upon receipt of advice from him, become a non-resident member but no return shall be made of any part of the entrance fee already paid; and any non-resident member who may remove his residence or place of business to within twenty miles of the United States Capitol shall become a resident member, and shall notify the Secretary in writing of such removal.

6. Clergymen in charge of churches, and who have been elected to membership in the Club, shall be exempt from the payment of the entrance fee, whether residents or non-residents, but they shall pay the same dues and be subject to the same regulations as other members.

7. Candidates elected on payment of the entrance fee and the dues for the current half year to be prorated monthly shall become members of the Club, and the election shall be void if he fail to make such payment within sixty days after notice of his election is mailed, addressed to him at the place given as his residence on the posted list of candidates.

8. Officers of the Army and Navy or any similar institutions, duly elected to membership, when ordered on service outside of the limits of the United States, or when stationed at a post distant more than two hundred and fifty miles from the City of Washington, District of Columbia, for a period longer than one year, shall have their dues remitted during the period of such service.

9. The names of all the members who shall fail to pay their dues within sixty days after due notice shall be then posted on the bulletin board in the Club House; and, if such dues are not paid within thirty days thereafter, such members may cease to be members of the Club; subject, however, to the provisions of Article VIII, Section 10, of the by-laws.

10. On the resignation or death of a member, or any forfeiture of membership by a member under these by-laws, all his right and interest in the property of the Club shall cease.

11. Every member shall leave his post-office address with the Secretary, and shall notify him of any change in the same, and all notices sent by mail to a member at the address inscribed on the Secretary's books shall be considered as served upon said member.

XII

SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION

Any member may be suspended or expelled for cause by a vote of three-fourths of all the members of the Council; one month's previous notice in writing having been given to the member with a copy of the charges preferred against him.

XIII

GAMBLING

No betting or card-playing for stakes shall be allowed in the Club House.

XIV

RULES

The Council shall prepare and enforce rules regulating the use of the Club House by the members.

XV

STANDING COMMITTEES

1. The Council shall appoint annually a House Committee, to consist of not more than five members, an Auditing and Finance Committee to consist of three members, a Committee on Literature, Art and Decorations, to consist of not more than five members, and an Entertainment Committee to consist of three members, and an Investment Committee to consist of the Treasurer and three other members; such committees to be standing committees for the current year. The chairman of each of such committees shall be designated by the Council.

2. Each of the standing committees shall make an annual report to the Council, which, in the discretion of the Council, shall be published with the annual report of the Club.

3. A vacancy in any standing committee may be filled by the Council. Neglect of a member of any standing committee to attend three consecutive meetings shall be deemed a tender of his resignation, unless a satisfactory explanation shall have been given.

XVI

HOUSE COMMITTEE

The House Committee shall meet at least once a week. It shall have power to make rules, called "House Rules."

It shall be its duty, subject to the control of the Council, to manage the Club, to regulate prices, to order purchases, to audit bills, to receive complaints, to redress grievances, and to appoint and dismiss all employees.

XVII

AUDITING AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Auditing Committee shall audit the accounts of the Treasurer monthly, or more often if so requested by the Council, and report to the Council the accounts audited and allowed since the previous report. It shall also act as a Finance Committee, with such duties and powers as the Council may prescribe.

XVIII

COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE, ART AND DECORATIONS

1. This committee, under direction of the Council, shall regulate the use of the library and reading-room, and of all books, papers and works of art belonging to the Club, and the decoration of the same, and shall have power to solicit and receive donations and to select and purchase out of the appropriations made by the Council all books, periodicals, and works of art for the Club. They shall keep a catalogue of the books belonging to the Club, and shall record therein with every such work, the time of its purchase or presentation.

2. A suggestion book shall be kept in the library, in which every member is authorized to enter, with his signature, any complaint as to the management of the Club and any suggestions he may desire to make.

XIX

COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENT

The Entertainment Committee, under the direction of the Council, shall provide and have charge of all social and literary entertainment of the Club.

XX

RULES OF COUNCIL AND COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS

The Council and Committee on Admissions shall each have power to make rules for its government, and to prescribe and enforce penalties for the violations of such rules.

XXI

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

It shall be the duty of the Council to appoint at their stated meeting in December in each year a Nominating Committee of five, whose names shall be posted immediately. Such Committee shall nominate and post a ticket of candidates for the Council and the Committee on Admissions at least three weeks previous to the annual meeting.

XXII

ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

University and college associations and college fraternal societies having at least five members, who are members of this Club, may have the privilege of having monthly meetings in a special room of the Club to be assigned to them by the House Committee.

XXIII

EVIDENCE OF MEMBERSHIP

I. Evidence of membership in the University Club of the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and of the rights and interests of such members in the corporate assets thereof, shall consist of a certificate of membership signed by the President, and countersigned by the Secretary, which, upon his election to membership, shall be mailed to such member by the Secretary, and which shall read as follows:

"CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP."

This is to certify, that..... has on the.....day of.....19....been elected to membership in "THE UNIVERSITY CLUB OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA," upon his application and agreement to conform to its charter and by-laws, among which is the following:

"Such certificate of membership in The University Club of the City of Washington, District of Columbia, shall be non-transferable and non-negotiable for any purposes whatsoever, and any right or interest in the corporate assets of said Club, which a man may have or which his estate might otherwise have, by virtue of his membership or the possession or ownership of such certificate, shall, upon his resignation or expulsion from said Club, or upon his death forthwith cease, and shall thereupon revert to the said Club."

It is expressly understood that this certificate is issued to and received by the above-named member subject to the provisions of the above section expressed.

THE UNIVERSITY CLUB OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

By

President.

Countersigned,

Secretary.

2. Such certificates of membership in "THE UNIVERSITY CLUB OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA," shall be non-transferable and non-negotiable for any purposes whatsoever and any right or interest in the corporate assets of said Club which a man may have, or which his estate might otherwise have, by virtue of his membership or the possession or ownership of such certificate, shall upon his resignation or expulsion from said Club, or upon his death, forthwith cease, and shall thereupon revert to the said Club.

XXIX

INVESTMENTS

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to report to the Council when there are moneys in the Treasury available for investment or reinvestment. There shall be a committee to be called the "Investment Committee," to consist of the Treasurer and three other members to be appointed by the Council, and such Committee, upon the approval by the Council of their recommendations, may be directed to invest such moneys as are reported by the Treasurer as available, and report their action at the next meeting of the Council. Such securities shall always be in the name of The University Club of the City of Washington, District of Columbia.

XXX

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURES

It shall be the duty of the House Committee and of the Committee on Literature, Art and Decorations, to advise with the Council as to all extraordinary expenditures in their respective departments, and to obtain its consent thereto before incurring the same. In cases of emergency, and where the Council can not be called in time, the House Committee may act and report its action at the next meeting of the Council.

XXXI

HONORARY MEMBERS

1. The ex-Presidents of the United States shall be entitled to become honorary members of the Club.

2. The President of the United States, the Vice-President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, the Associate Justices of the United States Supreme Court, the General-in-Chief commanding the Army, the Admiral of the Navy, the Presidents of all colleges and universities, all Cabinet officers of the United States, and the Librarian of Congress shall be entitled to become honorary members of the Club and receive the privileges thereof during their terms of official service.

XXXII

CONSTRUCTION OF THE BY-LAWS

On all questions as to the construction or meaning of the by-laws or rules of the Club, the decision of the Council shall be final, unless rescinded by the Club at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

XXXIII

AMENDMENTS

The by-laws may be amended at any meeting of the Club, annual or special, by a vote of a majority present, until after the annual meeting to be held in 1905, and thereafter by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. Notices of the proposed amendments shall be furnished to the Secretary and posted on the Club bulletin at least sixty days before the meeting at which it is proposed to consider them.

House Rules

I

The House will be open at 7:30 A. M. from May 1 to November 1, and at 8 A. M. from November 1 to May 1; and will be closed at 1 A. M.

II

The Grill Room will be open at 8 A. M. and closed at 8 P. M. The Wine Room will be closed at 12:30 A. M. Sandwiches or other light refreshments may be served at any hour the House is open.

III

The Billiard Room and Card Room will be closed from 12 o'clock on Saturday nights until 8 o'clock on Monday mornings.

IV

The tariff and regulations for the use of the Billiard, Card and other rooms will be under the control of the House Committee.

V

Treating among members of the Club is prohibited. Members may, however, agree to settle the tariff for cards, billiards and pool by the result of the game if they so desire, without being considered violators of the Rule or Article XIII of the by-laws.

VI

On the first day of every month (or as soon thereafter as may be practicable) a first notice of the amount of his indebtedness shall be sent to each member.

If such indebtedness be not paid on or before the fifteenth day of the month, such member shall be refused further credit until his indebtedness be discharged.

At the expiration of one month after mailing of the first notice of indebtedness, a second notice shall be mailed to each member continuing in default, notifying him that in event of his continued failure to pay his indebtedness, he will be charged with such failure at the next meeting of the Council, and a motion will then be made for his suspension on such charge, in accordance with the provisions of Article XII of the by-laws.

If a member shall at any time become indebted to the Club in the sum of twenty-five (25) dollars or more, he shall be immediately notified of the same, and upon failure to pay the indebtedness within one week after notification, his name shall be posted and his credit suspended.

In every case where credit is suspended no further supplies shall be furnished to such member until the indebtedness already incurred shall have been discharged.

VIII

Members introducing guests will be held liable for all unpaid bills incurred by such guests. Cards, granting the privileges of the Club to non-residents of the District of Columbia, for a period of two weeks, may be obtained on application to the House Committee. No member of the Club shall have more than two introductions in force at any one time.

IX

Members may bring to the House and entertain in the Club rooms residents of the District of Columbia provided the same guest be not introduced oftener than once a month. In all cases the guest must be registered in the book provided for the purpose by the member introducing him.

X

No person shall be admitted to the Club House except members and visitors individually invited under the rules; and all persons calling upon members or having business connected with the Club, shall be received in the Reception Room only.

XI

The privileges of the Club shall not be extended to minors, and minor children of members shall not be brought into the Club House.

XII

The Committee on Literature, Art and Decorations shall have charge of the general regulations of the Reading Rooms and Library.

XIII

No newspapers, magazines, books or other articles, the property of the Club, may be removed from the House by any member or employee.

XIV

Newspapers, magazines, and books, belonging to the Club shall not be marked, cut, nor otherwise defaced; neither shall they be removed from any room to any private rooms in the Club.

XV

Hats, coats, wraps, etc., must not be left lying about the Club House. The Club will not be responsible for any article unless left in the Coat Room and checked. Where a check has been mislaid or lost, a description of the article checked must be given to the servant in charge of the Coat Room, who will thereupon deliver the same upon the signing of a receipt.

XVI

Alumni associations, fraternities and other university organizations may secure the use of the Alumni Room for meetings, smokers, etc., by applying to the House Committee, provided five members of such organizations are members in good standing of the Club.

XVII

Playing cards will be furnished at thirty-five (35) cents per pack to those who desire unused cards. No other charge will be made for the use of the Card Room. The cards remain the property of the Club.

XVIII

All alterations of orders for articles served from the kitchen, wine room, or elsewhere, must be signed by members.

XIX

No article of any kind shall be exposed for sale in the Club House, and no subscription paper shall be circulated nor advertisement posted, without permission of the House Committee.

XX

No member shall date or address from the Club any communication intended to appear in any newspaper, periodical, or publication.

XXI

No member shall discuss or comment upon the affairs of the Club in the presence of any Club servant.

XXII

Members are requested not to reprimand the servants. Should any cause of complaint arise the attention of the House Committee should be immediately directed to it.

XXIII

Members shall not be allowed to send the servants out of the Club on any pretext. On application at the Office, any message will be promptly attended to, for which a proper charge will be made.

XXIV

No member or visitor shall be allowed to give, under any pretense whatsoever, money or any gratuity to any one in the service of the Club.

XXV

Employees are not allowed to play pool and billiards with members of the Club.

XXVI

No dogs shall be allowed on the Club premises.

XXVII

All complaints and requests shall be made in writing, signed, addressed to the House Committee, and deposited in the locked box provided for the purpose.

XXVIII

It shall be the duty of the House Committee to call the attention of members to any violations of the By-Laws and House Rules.

XXIX

It shall be the duty of every member of the Club to make himself familiar with its laws and rules, and ignorance thereof shall never be admissible in excuse for any breach or neglect in their observance.

Rules of the Committee on Admissions

1. Regular meetings of the Committee shall be held on the third Tuesday of every month, except July, August and September, in the Club Building, at 8 o'clock P. M.

2. Special meetings of the Committee may be called at any time by order of the Chairman of the Committee or of any three members of the Committee on two days written notice to the members of the Committee.

3. At each of the regular meetings the order of business shall be as follows:

- I. The meeting shall be called to order by the Chairman.
- II. The minutes of the previous meeting shall be read.
- III. The reports from Committees shall be presented.
- IV. The applications for membership shall be considered in the following order:

1. Names under Rule 12.
2. From the Secretary:
 - a* posted list for resident membership.
 - b* posted list for non-resident membership.
3. From the members of the Committee:
 - a* pending list for resident membership.
 - b* pending list for non-resident membership.
4. From the Chairman:
 - a* new applications for resident membership.
 - b* new applications for non-resident membership.

V. Unfinished business.

VI. New business.

VII. Election to fill vacancies on the Committee.

VIII. Adjournment.

4. Admissions to candidacy for membership in the Club shall be had only by proposal through some member of the Club and seconding by another member.

5. The proposer of a candidate for admission to the Club is required to send to the Committee on Admissions a letter of recommendation giving the name and place of residence of the candidate, the degree received, the profession or occupation, and such statement of his qualifications as the proposer may deem proper. If the candidate have no profession or occupation, that fact shall be stated in the proposer's letter, and if the eligibility of the candidate depend upon an honorary degree, the fact that the degree is honorary and the year when the degree was received shall also be stated in the letter together with the other facts which make the candidate eligible under the provisions of the constitution relating to the recipients of honorary degrees. A letter of recommendation is also required from the seconder.

6. All letters of recommendation of candidates for admission to the Club shall be deposited in the lock box of the Committee on Admissions in the office of the Club.

7. From these letters of recommendation the Secretary of the Committee on Admissions shall fill out the blank card of application and present it with the letters through the Chairman as a new application at the next meeting of the Committee.

8. These cards shall be passed upon by the Committee at that meeting if it consider that sufficient information is at hand. Otherwise, the cards shall be referred to three members of the Committee for investigation and the card be considered at the next meeting of the Committee as on the pending list.

9. All applications of new candidates, or candidates on the pending list that are passed upon and considered eligible for membership shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Club for at least one month, in accordance with the provisions of the by-laws.

10. All those applications of new candidates or candidates on the pending list that are passed upon by the Committee and considered not eligible for membership shall be retained; and the proposer of the candidate requested to withdraw the application.

11. Applications that have been posted for one month shall again come before the Committee for consideration. If no objection has been made the name of the candidate shall be balloted upon as provided in the by-laws.

12. If objection has been made the proposer may be notified and requested to withdraw the application; or the name may be balloted upon as provided in the Constitution; or the name may again be referred to three members of the Committee for further investigation, provided the three be not the same as those who have considered it and put it on the pending list—in this event, the consideration of the name shall be first in order at the next meeting of the Committee.

13. The result of the ballot for each candidate shall be interpreted as provided by the by-laws and reported to the Secretary of the Club who shall notify the candidate, proposer and seconder of the result. If the candidate be elected and no vacancies exist in the membership of the Club, the candidate elected shall have his name placed at the foot of the waiting list.

14. As vacancies occur in the membership of the Club, they shall be filled from the waiting list, those at the head of the list being notified in order by the Secretary of the Club that they may become members by qualifying under the by-laws.

15. Objections to any candidate for membership whose name is posted on the bulletin board, or whose name is known to be before the Committee for consideration, should be made in writing and dropped into the lock box of the Committee on Admissions.

16. The letter of proposal and all seconds of candidates for membership, shall be kept by the Secretary of the Committee and shall be open to inspection only by members of the Committee.

17. Letters, except those of the proposer and the seconder, relating to candidates whose names have been finally acted upon, shall forthwith be destroyed unless by a vote of the Committee any particular letter be preserved.

18. The name of no candidate for non-resident membership shall be considered by the Committee unless a letter respecting his candidacy shall have been received from a resident member of the Club or such candidate be personally known to some member of the Committee.

19. Candidates for resident membership must be personally known to at least one member of the Committee present.

20. When a candidate, who is a non-resident and is proposed as such, becomes a resident before the time when his name is first considered by the Committee, his name shall be transferred to the resident list under the same date as that upon which he was posted as a non-resident.

21. When a candidate, who is a resident and is proposed as such, becomes a non-resident before the time when his name is first considered by the Committee, his name shall be transferred to the non-resident list under the same date as that upon which he was posted as a resident.

22. The name of a candidate proposed before his graduation shall not be considered.

23. When the eligibility of a candidate has been passed on adversely at any meeting of the Committee, his name shall not be taken up again at any subsequent meeting within six months thereafter.
